

Fall 2013

---

W

G

S

S

Women's,
Gender, &
Sexuality Studies
Speaker Series

---

Transnational Feminist
Research and its Emerging
Theoretical
Paradigms

Wednesday, October 9
Mimi Sheller, Drexel University
*Towards Transnational Mobility
Justice: Caribbean Mobilities and Global Erotics*
4 pm | WLH 309

Thursday, November 14
Neferti Tadiar, Barnard College
*Purloined Transmissions: Vital
Platforms of Social Reproduction
Under Empire*
4 pm | WLH 309

---

The Fall 2013 WGSS Speaker Series brings scholars to campus who are working to understand the fluidity and porosity of national boundaries and the global networks of the twenty-first century that make possible connections across genders and social movements.

---

The WGSS Speakers Series is sponsored by the Yale Program in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and supported by the Edward J. and Dorothy Kempf Memorial Fund

Yale WGSS

For more information visit
<http://wgss.yale.edu/speaker-series>