

Spring 2014

---

Tuesday, March 25

Paul Amar, UC Santa Barbara
The Security Archipelago: Human-Security States, Race/ Sexuality Politics, and Social Militarization in Contemporary Egypt and Brazil
4 pm | WLH 309

Thursday, April 3

Shefali Chandra, Washington University in St. Louis
Gender, Sexuality, and Cultures of Terror: Hinduism and Heteronormativity in India since 9/11
4 pm | WLH 309

Friday, April 11

The Critical Life of Information
An interdisciplinary workshop that will consider questions of scale posed by the rise of Big Data as a cultural and political force (wgss.yale.edu/bigdata)
10 am–6 pm | WLH 309

---

The Spring 2014 WGSS Speaker Series brings scholars to campus who are working to understand the fluidity and porosity of national boundaries and the global networks of the twenty-first century that make possible connections across genders and social movements.

Yale WGSS

W

G

S

S

Women's, Gender, &
Sexuality Studies
Speaker Series

---

Transnational Feminist Research and its Emerging Theoretical Paradigms

---

The WGSS Speakers Series is sponsored by the Yale Program in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and supported by the Edward J. and Dorothy Kempf Memorial Fund

For more information visit
wgss.yale.edu/speaker-series